

A Touch of Class by SignaTours
“An American in Paris”
Wednesday – January 3rd

The Kennedy Center presents . . . “An American in Paris,” the new Tony Award® winning musical about an American soldier - Jerry, a mysterious French girl - Lise, and the indomitable European city, each yearning for a new beginning in the aftermath of World War II.

Acclaimed director/choreographer and 2015 Tony Award® winner Christopher Wheeldon brings the magic and romance of Paris into perfect harmony with unforgettable songs from George and Ira Gershwin in the show that earned more awards than any other musical in the 2015 season!

A delicious lunch is included at Tony and Joe’s Seafood Restaurant located beautiful in Georgetown on the Potomac River.
