

Touch of Class by SignaTours “Pride and Prejudice” at VMFA Sunday – March 24, 2019

The Virginia Museum of Fine Arts (VMFA) in Richmond, Virginia, is one of the largest comprehensive art museums in the United States. VMFA, which opened in 1936, is a state agency and privately endowed educational institution. Its purpose is to collect, preserve, exhibit, and interpret art, and to encourage the study of the arts. Upon arrival at the museum, enjoy a guided tour highlighting the museum’s permanent collections that encompasses nearly 40,000 artworks, including the largest public collection of Fabergé outside of Russia and the finest collection of Art Nouveau outside of Paris. You’ll have time to explore the exhibit on your own before lunch in the Marble Dining Room. Lunch consists of a Brie and Applewood Smoked Bacon Quiche served with a mixed green salad and fresh fruit sorbet, cookie, and coffee or tea. (If you have Dietary Restrictions, please let us know when signing up and an alternative option will be provided.)

You are in for an afternoon of great entertainment, as the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts hosts the Quill Theatre production of the classic, Pride and Prejudice. It is adapted from the novel made famous by Jane Austen. The story is about Mr. and Mrs. Bennet who have five unmarried daughters. When the wealthy bachelor, Mr. Bingley arrives in town, Mrs. Bennet sees a perfect match for her beautiful daughter, Jane. Mr. Bingley is not alone, however, and the combustible chemistry between the brooding stranger Mr. Darcy and the strong-willed Elizabeth Bennet will soon rock the family’s very foundation and change all their daughters.
