

“A Touch of Class by SignaTours” Holiday Celebration at the Opryland Resort November 30th – December 3rd, 2023

Thursday – November 30th: (Boxed Breakfast/Dinner)

Richmond to Nashville

Early morning departures from Richmond begin a four-day “Holiday Escape” to “Music City USA.” Sit back and relax as you travel to “The Volunteer State of Tennessee.” A Boxed Breakfast is served en route aboard the motorcoach this morning with a break made for lunch midday on your own. Stops will be made throughout the day and tour for the necessary rest, meal, and comfort breaks. An afternoon arrival and check-in is planned at the luxurious Gaylord Opryland Resort, beautifully decorated for the holiday! Next, a very special “Musical Dinner” is served aboard the General Jackson Showboat, an old-fashioned paddle boat that resembles the paddle boats of yesteryear. Cruise along the Cumberland River while being dined and entertained by a host of talented singers and musicians playing the sounds that made Nashville the Country Music City of the World!

Friday – December 1st: (Breakfast/Dinner)

Nashville, Nashville, and More Nashville

An eye-opening Breakfast at the Resort is followed by departure for a “Nashville Music City Tour!” Meet your friendly and professional “Nashville City Tour Guide” as you board the motorcoach and discover the many sights, sounds, and stories behind why Nashville is referred to as “Music City USA!” Country Music Legends and the History of Nashville come alive this morning like you’ve never seen or heard before. The highlight of the morning is a self-guided tour through Country Music’s most celebrated and iconic venues . . . The Ryman Auditorium. Considered the “Mother Church of Country Music,” the Ryman Auditorium is a Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and National Historic Landmark, best known as the original site of the “Grand Ole Opry.” Free time follows your Opry Tour for lunch on your own and exploration in the downtown Honky Tonk District. A visit will also be made to Nashville’s “Sweetest” stop - the Goo Goo Chocolate Co. where the original “Goo Goo Cluster” is king!

Return to the Opryland Hotel for a short time to relax or explore the Resort before you’re off again for an exciting evening on the town that begins with Dinner at Paula Deen’s Family Kitchen. You’ll feel right at home while enjoying Southern hospitality at its finest and family-style cooking as only Paula can deliver. Complete the evening with an unforgettable performance at the Grand Ole Opry! As the longest running radio broadcast in the United States, the Opry began as a simple radio broadcast in 1925. Today, it’s a live entertainment phenomenon honoring country music’s rich history and dynamic presence. An American icon and Nashville’s number-one attraction, the Grand Ole Opry showcases a mix of country legends and the contemporary chart-toppers who have followed in their footsteps. Entertainers change every performance, so you never know who will be the “Stars of the Evening.” What a wonderful ending to an exciting and festive day in Nashville.

Saturday – December 2nd: (Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner)

Nashville

Breakfast at the Resort is followed by departure to the Country Music Hall of Fame® and Museum, often referred to as the “Smithsonian of Country Music” because of its unrivaled musical collection. The Museum unveiled its $100 million expansion in 2014, doubling the size to 350,000 square feet of dynamic state-of-the-art galleries. Immerse yourself in the sights and sounds of country music’s past and present through exhibits featuring artifacts, photographs, recorded sounds and video, interactive touchscreens, and so much more! Next, travel takes you to Fiddle Dee Farms for a Boxed Lunch and the matinee performance of “We Need a Lot of Christmas.” There’s no other show in Nashville quite like this three-time award winning show that features more music, more dancing, and more holiday spirit than ever! Humorously scripted, this wonderfully festive Christmas performance will put a smile on your face and a song in your heart while singing along to all your favorite Christmas tunes. Following the performance, return to the Resort for a chance to freshen up and to enjoy all the amenities this incredible property has to offer.
